Quick summary

EduLinked consultations help organisations clarify access barriers, improve communication and design more inclusive learning or participation pathways.

What to do next

- 1 Read the overview.
- 2 Check the access and support notes.
- 3 Contact EduLinked at founder@edulinked.com.au with questions or to request a plain-language version.

What consultation can help with

- Accessibility and plain-language review.
- Digital inclusion planning.
- Learning and program design.
- NDIS-related communication support with clear boundaries.
- Grant/project lifecycle support.

How the process works

- 1 Initial enquiry.
- 2 Scope the question and audience.
- 3 Confirm access needs and deliverables.
- 4 Complete review, meeting or design work.
- 5 Provide summary and next steps.

Possible deliverables

- Plain-language summary.
- Accessibility notes.
- Program outline.
- Partner/pilot brief.
- Resource checklist.
- Implementation plan.

Boundaries

- Consultation does not replace legal, clinical, financial or official regulatory advice.
- Sensitive information should be shared only when necessary.
- Pricing and scope should be confirmed before work begins.

Access and inclusion commitment

EduLinked designs resources to be clear, flexible and usable across different communication, literacy, sensory and support needs. Access needs can be discussed before participation or partnership is confirmed.
